

OOONI | Probe

Measure Internet Censorship

Detect the Blocking of Websites
and Apps in Your Country

Measure Internet Censorship

Did you know?

Governments blocked social media (e.g. WhatsApp) during elections in Uganda, Tanzania, Mali, Benin, Togo, Burundi, Zambia, and many other countries in recent years.

What you can do?

- 1 Run OONI Probe on Mobile or Desktop.
| Scan to Install OONI Probe →
- 2 Enable Automated testing in the OONI Probe settings to contribute results every day!

Heads-up!

Please turn your VPN off when running OONI Probe to help ensure more accurate test results.

Running OONI Probe can potentially be risky in certain countries.

| Learn more →

Contribute evidence of Internet censorship

In real-time, your OONI Probe test results are published as open data.

This data will support human rights advocacy efforts defending your digital rights.

